

DOCUMENTS TO BE SUBMITTED

Document		Instructions
<input type="checkbox"/>	Manuscript (Article)*	The template provided by RER must be used so that the article's general structure and formatting respect RER's Publishing Standards. Using the template does not exclude the in-depth reading of RER's Publishing Guidelines and RER's Critical Analysis Topics for the type of article you intend to submit. The document must be submitted in Word format during the Submission Phase without identifying the authors.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Title Page*	Download the template made available by RER, fill in the article's title, the data requested for all authors, the corresponding author's data, funding (if applicable), acknowledgments (if applicable), and the data of the thesis/dissertation from where the article derives (if applicable). The document must be submitted during the Submission Phase.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Authorship Responsibility Statement*	Download the template provided by RER, fill in the article's title, mark the checkboxes, fill in the names of all the authors (in the order they must appear in the article), and signal each one's contribution to the article. All authors must sign the document. Author contributions must be presented using the CRediT Contributor Roles Taxonomy. More information about CRediT can be found at https://credit.niso.org/ and RER's Instructions for Authors .
<input type="checkbox"/>	Cover letter*	Download the template provided by RER and fill in the authors' names. All authors must sign the document.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Ethics Committee Opinion 	Submitting an Ethics Committee's Opinion on the study is mandatory. The opinion must clearly identify and describe the study and be appropriately signed.

* Mandatory for all articles

** Mandatory for research articles and other types of articles if applicable

Updated on: 29/12/2022